Why the South is Solid for Hanc ider what Lee and Jackson would d were they alive. These are the same principles r which they fought for four years. Remem ber the men who poured forth their life blood on Virginia's soil, and do not abandon them now. Remember that upon your vote depends the su cess of the Democratic ticket .- [Wade Hamp ton, at the meeting in the interest of Democratic Harmony in Virginia, at Staunton, July 26.

The last Harper's Weekly has a striking picture of a scene from real life these days. A political loafer makes his appearance in front of a mechanic at work, fresh from the "Hotel de Rum" across the street, and addresses him thus:

Political Logier—Hurrah for a change!

Busy Workman—Times are better; work plenty. I don't want a change for your ake.

As a fitting addendum to this picture and as a corroboration of it-we append the following paragraph from the Bellaire Tribune of yesterday:
Every manufacturing establishment in Bellaire is now at work, and combined they are turning out more manufactured goods than ever before. The working classes are all employed, getting very fair wages, and the merchants are enjoying a proeperous and profitable trade. There has never been a time when everything looked so favorable here for the growth and prosperity of the city, and we ask the people of the county outside the city to visit Bellaire and take a look at her productive industries and they will be astonished at their extent and variety.

This is the story that can be told in re-ALEI, H. STEPHENS,
From an interview in the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

"As to the Credit Mobilier matters with which Gen. Garfield has been charged, I believe he was altogether innocent of them. It will not do for the Democratic party to throw mud at Gen. Garfield, Lecause if they do they will elect him."

This is the story that can be told in re gard to almost every locality in the coun try. Times are better and work is plenty, and why should the country be turned upside down politically merely to put a great lot of bummers in office who have become hungry and ravenous for the spoils after their long fast. .

The change we want is not a change of this sort, but rather of the kind indicated by Secretary Sherman in his great speech at Cincinnati on the 30th of last month. in which he said: "We want to change this Democratic Congress into a Republi-can Congress, in harmony with the spirit of the age and with the general policy of the Republican party; a Con-keen for plunder, and versed in all the tricks of the trade, will seek to open the doors of the treasury to the brood of Southern claims, which, despite our overflowing revenues, will bankrupt the treasury in a year. Thus far, during this administration, the gate has been put down and barred sgainst all these claims. The statute of limitations and the decisions of the department have cut them off; but, under a Democratic administration of the Treasury Department, how easy it would be to break down this barrier. I know from my personal knowledge a number of claim counts, industrial me, who will vote for Ham. James A. Garfield, of Ohio [deristve laughter]; a man who has long been in public service, long been the leader of his party, and who stands to day the mightiest warrior of them all, the greatest Republican member of the Lower House of Congress. [Sensation.] I know James A. Garfield by being with him in the Lower House of Congress, and I know that there is no Republican of that party abler than he. I see that the newspapers are making charges against his character; but, my friends, I cannot say that they are in any a wise true. be to break down this barrier. I know from my personal knowledge a number of claim agents, infuential men, who will vote for Hancock on the ground that his election will enable them to recover claims now barred. All that is needed to cause the refunding of the cotton tax, amounting to $68,000,000, is an appropriation. Most of the members of the South, through their constituents, are interested in these claims."

CLARINGTON, OHIO. The Progress of the Republican Can paign Down There. CLARINGTON, September 15.

DEAR SIRS: It will perhaps be of interst to you to know what the Republican s concerned, the facts in the case can not are doing in Clarington, Ohio. We had a be better put forth than in the following John Habermehl addressed the Garfield Club for the third time. His speech wa lican State Convention of New Hampon tariff. His address was well received shire:

"That the party that has maintained the financial integrity of the Republic by the resumption of specie payments and the honest discharge of National liabilities, thereby lifting the industries of the country from unparalled depression to unprecedented prosperity, should not be suplainted by a party which has repudiated its financial obligations and done all in its power to debase the National currency and to throw perpetual blight on the industries and prosperity of the Nation." and one of his strongest points is in pre-senting the principles of the Republica party to the people in child-like simplici ty, to be easily understood. Quite a num ber of Democrats have declared their in tention to vote for Garfield.

In the begining he said: "The principles we lay down for our text is that the mechanic and farmer are the bone and sinew of our country; that the interests of mechanics and farmers go hand in hand; that a protective tariff encourages manufacturers; that manufacturers sustain the mechanics; that the mechanic builds up our cities; that cities give the farmers mouths to fill, and that without cities the farmer is nothing more than a corn-fed pauper. After thus having spoken on and explained his text, he concluded with the following beautiful tribute to the American mechanic, which was received with a tremedous epplanse.

He said: "Let us by all means sustain ention to vote for Garfield.

the American mechanic, which was received with a tremedous epplause.

He said: "Let us by all means sustain the mechanic with a liberal hand; take my word for it, he will mbre than doubly frepay us. See how he reaps your grain, mowsyour grass, threshes your wheat, plows your fields, cooks your meals, and warms your fire-sides. Remember how he gave us steel faugs during the war to strike the copperheads with."

These were about the main points of Mr. Habermehl's speech. Mr. Habermehl is a splendid reasoner and speaker.
He is making many converts from the Democracy and causing a grand stampede in their ranks. I will give you the names of one or two prominent ones among the of the courts in Indianapolis is summed up as follows by the Cleveland Leader:

During the short space of two years, as shown by court records, he ejected seventy-two poor families from their homes. And this was not done for non-payment of rent due but because the tenants failed to pay their rent in advance. The modern Shylock watched them as a hawk watches his prey. As long as they had work, were well, and were likely to be able to pay him, they were unmolested. The moment that adversity befell them, English united his persecutions with their misfortunes, and drove them out of house and home. His rapacious maw spared neither sex nor age. He had pity for no one. His inexorable grasp fell wherever there was misfortune and suffering.

If any man, after reading the article in our supplement, can vote for William H. English, he must do so upon the principle that inhumanity and rapacity are worthy of being rewarded. During the last few years he has made hundreds of thousands of dollars by foreclosing martages on property which he had sold to poor people and for which he had received part payment. Every poor, hard working mechanic who came within his reach was robbed. General Joe Geiger recently and that if this man English were not applicable the fauture. He is deserving of punishment here and in the next world too, but if the voters do their duty in November they will see that he then receives a genuine foretaste of what is in store for him hereafter.

Marrin's Ferry leads all other localities of one or two prominent ones among the converts: Charles Beck, a soldier, Chris-tian F. Bridegroom, a soldier, and many others whose names I will withhold for the Present. Yours,
